The Legal Structure of the Church

- Much of the denomination's activity is accomplished through status as an unincorporated entity.
- However, the Church also exists in an environment of that obligates the Church to have 'legal personality' along with its privileges and responsibilities.
- Corporation is the most common form of legal personality.
- These kinds of organizations do not come into being of themselves each must be specifically authorized by the executive committee of a church organization (conference/mission, union, division, or by the board of an institution).

Corporation-Definition

  - All operational aspects of the Conference including employees
  - Ecclesiastical organization
- ASSOCIATION-CORPORATION

Dual Structure Organizations

- Some conferences have merged the Corporation and the Unincorporated Conference Association into one
- Reasons
  - Reduce liability
  - Local legal requirements
  - Confusion between dual structure
  - Better record keeping

Board v. Executive Committee

- What is the difference between Executive Committee and Board of Directors
  - Board of Directors generally refers to a Corporate Entity, some conferences and unions have merged the unincorporated and incorporated entities into one. Some merged entities still refer to Board as Executive Committee.
- Institutions have governing boards

Best Distinction

- Corporate
  - Bound by local corporate law
  - Constitution and Bylaws
  - Board has fiduciary responsibility to members
- Ecclesiastical
  - Held together by Working Policy and Church Manual
  - Unincorporated Association
  - Executive Committee fiduciary responsibility to Constituency
  - Perhaps different set of laws depending on jurisdiction dealing with unincorporated associations

SDA Governance System

Governing Board

  - Stand alone entity
  - One employee member
  - External chairperson
  - President/CEO accountable to Board
  - Limited hiring decisions by Board
  - Incorporated Status

Executive Committee

  - Internal Chairman
  - More employees as Board Members
  - Multiple hiring decisions
  - Unincorporated status

Local church/school boards

- The local conference is the lowest level of legal identity recognized by the church
- The local congregation/school has representative delegated authority to conduct the local activities as part of the conference
- Local church/school boards are not legal entities
- Local board members/employees and volunteers are agents of the conference
- Local actions can and do have a direct legal impact on the conference
- Operational boards

Incorporating Local Entities

- Corporate Entity (NAD WP Requirements)
- Is there a need for organization to incorporate?
- Liability of local board members
- Process that needs to be followed
- “The Entity Was Forfeited For Failure To File Property Return”.
- “Entity is not in Good Standing”

Not in Good Standing

“Not in Good Standing” means the business entity is not in compliance with one or more State laws that apply to businesses and their responsibilities in this State. Only business entities that are active can have a good standing status, so a business that has been voluntarily terminated will also show “not in good standing” because it is no longer active.

The status can be returned to Good Standing by addressing the manner in which the business is out of compliance. If a business was voluntarily terminated, it cannot return to good standing because a voluntary termination is permanent.

The most common reasons that a business is not in good standing are

- A missing Annual Report and Business Personal Property Return, also called a Form
- A monetary penalty resulting from the late filing of a Form 1
- Not having an active resident agent
- An issue with the Office of the Comptroller -
- A check or other form of payment that was dishonored
- An issue with the Department of Labor
